This Felony Defense Practice Seminar will provide you with 5.5 hours of continuing legal education participatory credits by addressing some of the major aspects of felony defense practice that we as defense attorneys frequently deal with. We will cover important topics that include closing arguments, pretrial motions, ways to avoid prison sentences in serious felony cases, and much more. Note: We have also reserved a block of lodging rooms at the Kona Kai Marina Hotel at a special rate - Be sure let the hotel know you're with CPDA when you make reservations (the lodging discount has an approaching cut-off date, so make lodging reservations immediately if you plan to attend). This program is MCLE accredited - please see box below for details.
